

St Swithun's is a leading Independent GSA and HMC Boarding/Day School of 520 girls aged 11-18 years

Teacher of Classics (0.5 – 0.6 approx)

Required from September 2025

The school seeks to appoint a well-qualified, enthusiastic and engaging individual to join the Classics department and deliver effective teaching and learning. The department is a thriving one and aims to deliver a positive experience of the ancient world to all students. This is a wonderful opportunity to enjoy working in a stimulating professional environment.

The ability to teach Latin to A level is a requirement of this post, and teaching Classical civilisation and/or Greek to GCSE would also be a significant advantage, though these would not be essential. The successful candidate will be a positive and dynamic individual who is able to engage, motivate and inspire students of all ages.

St Swithun's is a popular and successful selective girls' school committed to developing innovative teaching and learning; open communication with parents and being a tolerant, kind and supportive community in which every pupil feels able to try new challenges without fear of failure. St Swithun's is proud to be a High Performance Learning school and a member of the Fellowship of World Class Schools.

Application deadline – 9am, Monday 27 January 2025

Further details of the post and an application form are available from <https://www.stswithuns.com/about-us/staff-vacancies> or Mrs. Rachel Nicholls, executive assistant, recruitment@stswithuns.com or 01962 835701

St Swithun's is a registered charity providing education for boys and girls and is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All staff are expected to share and support this commitment and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure & Barring Service
